RESIGNED HIS PLACE.

Rev. J. T. McDonald of St. Joseph, Who Has so Faithfully Represented the St. Louis Orphans' Home.

Rev. J. T. McDonald of St. Joseph, who was in Maryville Monday to take the 4-months-old baby girl from the county farm to the St. Louis Orphans' Home, has resigned that work, after twelve years of most faithful and efficient service, and his resignation will take place the first of January. The officers of the home are all broken up over his decision, and have done and said all they could to dissuade him from his purpose to retire from the work. They are at a loss where to look for some one to take his place, but Mr. McDonald has promised to assist them in securing some one and help him in getting started.

Mr. McDonald has found good homes for 600 children in the twelve years he has been working for the home, and with such a record as that, he or any man could well retire, knowing they had brought happiness to so many.

Mr. McDonald's decision to resign the work, which kept him almost constantly from his family, was brought about by the marriage of his daughter, Madonna, Wednesday of last week to Mr. R. W. Cannon of Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald have a daughter left to them, but the marriage and departure of the eldest daughter made him realize how little time he had spent at home with her, so he has concluded to give the rest of his life to his family. He has purchased an interest in the S. A. Lyons Furniture company's business at Seventh and Charles streets, and will be a St. Joseph business man from now on.

WRITES ABOUT MIKE CALLAHAN.

Never Mixes in Politics, But Keeps Right on Making Money and Buying Land.

In Monday's issue of the St. Joseph Gazette appeared the following write-up of Mike Callahan, the big Arkoe farmer:

Politics are not bothering Mike Callahan of Arkoe, the richest and best fixed farmer in Nodaway county. Mike is a charter member of the "let well enough alone" club of Arkoe, in fact, he is its president. Politics have never bothered Miks Callahan since the day he lived in a dugout and put shoes on mules that were used in grading the old Hopkins branch of what is now the Burlington railway.

Maybe it is because Mike Callahan is a Yankee that he is a philosopher, and maybe that is one reason that Mike believes in letting well enough politics alone. He has had so much work on his hands running his farm and making money that political economy has never bothered him. When he got his farm to where "it sorter ran itself" then Mike got himself an automobile. That automobile was a sort of necessity to Mike Callahan. His farm was getting so big that he could hardly ride over it on horseback or around it in a buggy, so he went up to Maryville and ordered a car, the model of which was two years ahead of the times. Mike lost his chauffeur. She got married, and there was the biggest wedding out at Mike Callahan's big brick farm palace that ever was.

Philosopher that he is, Mike was mighty lonesome after his chauffeur, his daughter and only child, was married, but Mike has the player piano left, even if the girl that played it did get married and went to the city to live. Mike can operate the piano player, too, and the Sextet from Lucia, and other classics in which a philosophical mind likes to indulge musically, are his favorites.

Being a Yankee and rich and a farmer, Mike Callahan naturally turns to literature, good literature, too, just as he wants the best music that he can buy, and for the same reason that he bought himself the best phonograph and the best player piano that cash, wrung from the soil, could buy, and the rural mail carrier that drives out by Mike's farm six days in the week unloads more magazines at Mike's mail box than at all others on his mail route combined.

Prosperity has not spoiled Mike Callahan. He is just as plain and uncouth as he was when shoeing mules and living in a dugout. Fact is, Mike shod mules at night and drove a pair of them to a slip scraper on the "dump" in the daytime. Mike saw that there was a future for the prairie land north of Savannah as soon as the graders got to making the dirt fly up the 102 river valley.

It did not take much money to buy Nodaway county land in those days, and Mike Callahan was making money driving a mule team by day and shoeing mules by lantern or forge light at night. Mike had seen the Connecticut river valley with all its wealth of fertility, and he had likewise seen the barren hillside farms of the New England states, because he had tried to scratch a living out of them and found it more profitable to come west and help build railroads and shoe mules.

Well, Mike bought land and put mortgages on it and paid the mortgages off, raised hogs and cattle to which he fed corn in order to sell the hogs and cattle to buy more land on which to raise more corn to feed more hogs and cattle to sell to buy more land with, ad infinitum.

Mike has a picture of a big bunch of cattle hanging on the wall of the parlor in his brick mansion. That picture was taken at the stock yards in South St. Joseph, and along with that bunch of the finest car load of cattle ever sent to the South St. Joseph market, is the picture of a girl, Mike's chauffeur, the girl who helped him feed those cattle and put them on the market and who was so pretty and dashing that a city bred man just naturally could not help falling in love with her and marrying her.

Mike Callahan maybe is worth a half million dollars. He does not know, neither does he care. He is getting along fine, thank you, and his farm becomes more productive every year and his cattle and horses and hogs improve in quality every year and the sequel is that Mike's bank deposits in the Maryville National bank get larger every year and he buys a new farm or two every year or so.

ROLLED IN BLANKET

DEMENTED MAN REFUSED TO DON HIS CLOTHING.

BROKE UP FURNITURE

Raised Disturbance at 3 o'Clock in the Morning and Was Taken to County Jail.

Charles Coombs of Burlington Junction, who has been subject to attacks of insanity within the past few weeks, was locked up in the county jail here early Tuesday morning after having one of his spells.

Coombs came to Maryville Monday night from St. Joseph with his father, George Coombs. Coombs after being arrested last Friday at St. Joseph for drunkenness became violently insane at the central police station in that city and was transferred to the padded cell for fear he would harm himself. His father went from Burlington Junction to that city Monday and he and officer Bert Mack brought the man to Maryville.

Coombs and his father spent the night at Jack Thornton's residence, corner of Sixth and Buchanan streets and about three o'clock this morning Coombs raised an awful disturbance, breaking furniture and other articles. He said that he wanted his fiddle and that he was going to have it. He also cussed. Word was sent at once for night officer Bert Mack and he with Robert Yeaman went to the house to get Coombs. The officers had a time with Coombs trying to get him to put his clothes on, but he refused and so the officers rolled him in several blankets and took him to the county jail. His clothes were taken to him Tuesday morning.

Coombs was still in jail Tuesday. He told the officers that he was ready to be taken to the asylum at any time.

The man was still in a terrible condition at the county jail today. He tore up all of the blankets he could get hold of and laughed and swore at everybody. It is feared that he will harm himself unless some disposition is made of him soon.

It is not known at this time what will be done with him, but it is probable that a special session of the court will be held and the man sent to the asylum at St. Joseph.

WENT HOME ALONE.

Crazy Man at Burlington Junction Mineral Springs Was Able to Go Home Monday Night.

Hugo Leu, the man from Treynor, a., who stirred up things at the Burington Junction mineral springs sanarium Saturday afternoon and night by his insane actions, and had to be eld in jail in town all day Sunday nd Monday, had so far recovered from is spell by Monday night that he was llowed to leave on the night train or his home alone.

He had not fully recovered his mental equilibrium, but he was so much etter in appearance and speech that he authorities felt safe in letting him go.

The physicians are still at a loss to ccount for the "spell" the man had, ut believe it was the grand finale of a prolonged "booze" that had made him sick and had caused him to seek the springs for relief from his suffering that had all the symptoms of a bad case of rheumatism.

Chairman D. C. McClung of the Democratic state committee, yesterday sent out notices to the precinct committeemen throughout the state to change the date of Wilson day to November 2.

Chairman McClung said yesterday that the meetings which originally had been called for October 31 would be postponed until November 2, in accordance with the wishes of the national committee.

"We are going to make it a joint meeting for Wilson and Major," said Chairman McClung, "and Attorney General Major will send his wishes to the voters of the state while they are in session. I am sure that the statewide demonstration in Missouri will be as large as in any state in the Union."

HINTON DAVIS DEAD

PASSED AWAY TUESDAY MORNING AT DAUGHTER'S HOME.

WAS SICK FOUR YEARS

Funeral Services Wednesday Afternoon at the Shopbell Home—Burial at White Oak.

John Hinton Davis, for many years a resident of Nodaway county, died Tuesday morning at 2:30 o'clock, after a long illness of Bright's disease. His death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Shopbell, at Pickering, where he has been confined to his bed for eight weeks.

The funeral services will be conducted at the daughter's home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. F. M. Lindenmeyer. Burial will take place in White Oak cemetery by the side of a daughter of the deceased who died thirty years ago.

Mr. Davis was 71 years old. He was born near Nashville, Tenn., and came with his parents to Missouri and settled at Harrison. Later Mr. Davis came to Nodaway county and spent the greater part of his life here, making his home in Maryville for eighteen years, his last residence being on South Vine street.

Mr. Davis was married in December, 1868, to Mrs. Margaret Reece of this county, who survives him with their children, who are Mrs. Charles Shopbell of Pickering, Mrs. J. H. Rissell of St. Joseph, John Davis of Hopkins and Harry H. Davis of Kansas City. Also three step-children, Mrs. Edward Otis and Adolphus M. Reece of Maryville and Mrs. Mary Livasy of Pickering.

Mr. Davis served four years during the civil war and was a member of the G. A. R. post of this city.

DID NOT BRING HIM BACK.

Hearing of Requisition Was Before Kansas Attorney General, Who Will Give Decision Later.

Sheriff Tilson returned Tuesday noon from Topeka, Kan., where he and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Marshall E. Ford had been present at a hearing before the attorney general of Kansas in the case of O. H. Price of Jewell county, Kansas, who is wanted in this county. The attorney general heard the case, but said that he would not give a decision until next week.

It is said that politics is mixed up in the case, as petitions bearing names of many citizens of Jewell county were presented to Governor Stubbs and other state officials, requesting them not to honor the requisition.

It is thought that no decision will be given until after election.

Price is charged with misrepresenting facts and obtaining money under false pretenses, stated Attorney Ford. He came to this county to buy a farm near Elmo, and needing $1,000, went to the Elmo bank to borrow the money. He represented himself as a big property owner in Kansas, it is alleged. The bank advanced him the money as his story was told with much sincerity and was so plausible. But the bank found out that they were the losers and had an information issued against Price. Requisition papers were issued and sent to the governor of Kansas, but a protest was raised and the hearing was held Monday.

Frank Reavis, W. A. Miller and John Mutz spent Sunday in Parnell. Mrs. Reavis, who had been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thummell, there a few days, returned home with Mr. Reavis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Finney of Colorado Springs, Col., left for their home Tuesday morning after a visit with Mr. Finney's sister, Mrs. A. W. Littler, and family.

Mrs. R. H. Perry went to Higginsville, Mo., Tuesday morning for a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. N. M. Sowder.

A DOZEN REASONS.

Why you should vote against Ex-President Roosevelt:

1. He has broken his solemn promise not to be a candidate for a third term, therefore his other promises are not to be relied upon.

2. For seven years he was president, and during those seven years the very conditions he now pretends to combat viciously were more thoroughly developed than during all the other periods in the country's history.

3. The day he became president there were 149 trusts or combinations, capitalized at $3,000,000,000, and the day he retired from office there were 1,020 such combinations, capitalized at $31,000,000,000.

4. He permitted the steel trust to acquire the Tennessee Coal and Iron company, its principal rival, in violation of the anti-trust law, and forbade the prosecution of the harvester trust at the request of George W. Perkins, his present national chairman.

5. The man, next to Roosevelt, responsible for the third term movement is George W. Perkins. Perkins is the promoter and defender of the most pernicious trusts in the United States, which are the most vicious imposers on the men, women and children wage earners of the country.

6. He urges the legalization of trust watered stock and monopoly, as first advocated by Perkins, his principal supporter and financial backer.

7. He accepted campaign contributions from trusts, insurance companies and "crooked business," and denied that he had done so—"My dear Harriman." He stands for "Boss" Flinn, "Boss" Woodruff and other "bosses" who serve him.

8. During the seven years he was president he failed, even refused, to lift a finger against high tariff. Who believes, if elected, he would try to reduce excessive tariff taxes? Who is he surrounded now by high tariff men, who are contributing freely to his campaign fund?

9. He loves war better than peace.

10. Out of office he promises too much, and in office performs too little.

11. He says that the small farmers and the laborers of the city are not to be mentioned in the same breath with cowboys, etc. After describing the drunkenness and deadly shooting affrays of the the cowboys, he writes: "But they are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than the small farmers or agricultural laborers; nor are the mechanics of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath with them."

12. President Taft, who knows him best, says of him: "He is a demagogue, a neurotic, a flatterer, an egotist."

MILITIA TO STOP TRACK GAMBLING

Restraining Order Failed to Close Indiana Racing.

TWO COMPANIES ORDERED OUT

Private Detectives Employed by State Reported Conditions Worse Than Last Week—Governor's Message Was Result.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—Two companies of state militia will surround the track of the Mineral Springs Jockey club at Porter, Ind., before the hour for opening in the morning, in compliance with orders just issued by Mark Thistlethwaite, secretary to Gov. Marshall.

The call for troops followed a report from private detectives employed by the state, who said there was more gambling at the track during the day than at any time last week.

The state failed in its attempt to close the track by a restraining order and Gov. Marshall, who is campaigning in California, wired his secretary to use the militia if the county authorities failed to stop the meet. The corporation has failed to take out corporation papers in this state.

Expect No Trouble.

Brig. Gen. Charles A. Garrard departed for Porter, where he will immediately take charge of the troops.

Company F of South Bend and company M of Rennssalaer, which have been ordered out, can reach the track in less than an hour. State officials say they expect no trouble as a result of sending troops to the scene and add that it was the only course left to curb alleged violations.

A message just received from Gov. Marshall reads:

"If the attorney general says the law is being violated and the sheriff will not do his duty, have the militia sent to enforce the law."

TO PROMOTE RIVER NAVIGATION

New $10,000,000 Corporation Will Lobby for Legislative Aid for Missouri and Mississippi.

According to Boehmer the new corporation will at once proceed to establish lobbies at various legislative centers in states through which the Missouri and Mississippi rivers flow to obtain legislation favorable to the improvement of the rivers named and the building of more steamboats, docks, the encouragement of ship building companies now in operation and to encourage all such steamboat transportation companies to make greater investment.

GET A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS

Insures You for Months Against a Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation or a Bad Stomach.

Put aside—just once—the salts, cathartic pills, castor oils or purgative waters which merely force a passageway through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and and never have headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Caswomen take a Cascaret now and then carets belong in every household. FOREIGNERS TO BE RESPECTED

Both Sides in Mexican Revolution Make Promises.

PORFIRIO DIAZ NOT TO RETURN

Washington Authorities Watching Closely Situation in Mexico, But Are Assured Americans Will be Unharmed.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Official interest here centered upon the situation in Mexico, where the rebellion, which has been in progress for months, has taken on a new and formidable phase as the result of Gen Felix Diaz's leadership.

The return to Washington of Secretary Knox from his Japanese trip; the presence here of Henry Lane Wilson, ambassador to Mexico, and interesting and important developments in the military situation at Vera Cruz, held by Diaz the last few days, were elements that served to concentrate attention upon the Mexican trouble.

Promises Are Abundant.

The military situation at Vera Cruz, according to the last reports to the department, is extremely interesting. General Beltran has said that he would do all he could in conformity with orders from his government to capture the town to protect it from destruction. Furthermore, he told the foreign consuls that he would transmit to his government their request to refrain from bombarding the town or fighting in its streets.

For his part Gen. Diaz, who is in complete possession of the city proper, offered to the consuls all possible guarantees to life and property so long as he maintained control.

Consuls Reassured.

With the leaders on both sides in this frame of mind, the consuls felt reassured.

According to the day's reports everything in Vera Cruz is unusually quiet and orderly and is likely to remain so unless the federal gunboats start to bombard the city.

Porfirio Diaz Won't Return.

Paris, Oct. 22.—Gen. Porfirio Diaz, ex-president of Mexico, declared that his intention of not returning to Mexico was unchanged. He shows great interest in the news concerning his nephew, Felix Diaz, and the taking of the port of Vera Cruz. He said, however, that he was totally without private advices from Mexico and "under the circumstances I prefer not to express any opinion relative to my nephew's chances."

WOULD BORROW LIBERTY BELL

Frisco Children Trying to Get Historical Relic for Exposition in 1915.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—A movement has been started by the school children here to get the Liberty bell for the exposition in 1915. More than 50,000 signatures were obtained to a petition, which will be sent to the mayor and council of Philadelphia asking for the bell.

At the special services for Liberty Bell day children executed a military drill, participating in a flag raising and listening to an address by Mayor Rolph. Each child carried a small American flag, and a large flag covering a model of the statehouse in Philadelphia, where the Liberty bell hung was placed on the platform.

"Let San Francisco have the Liberty bell in 1915" was the sign indicating the reason for the celebration.

WOMAN TO FACE HER ASSAILANT

Deputy sheriffs who have warrants for four other young men, are searching quietly for them. Another young man is held in jail at Ironton, but the names of four of the alleged assailants have not been ascertained by Sheriff John Marshall.

Doctors of Mississippi Valley.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Medical association opened today at the Hotel Sherman with Dr Louis Frank of Louisville presiding. Until Thursday night the doctors will be busy listening to papers and attending clinics. The address in surgery will be delivered by Dr. Maurice H. Richardson of Boston, and the address in medicine by Dr. Charles G. Stockton of Buffalo.

Another Pennsylvania Wreck.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Pennsylvania railroad's Buffalo flyer, due in this city at 4:30 a. m. crashed into a box car that was being switched at Newberry. The flyer's engineer, David Getkin of Harrisburg, Pa., was killed. None of the passengers was injured.

TWO SALINA WOMEN SHOT

One Dead, the Other in Hospital, Fatally Injured.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS TRAGEDY

Had Been Living in Same House and Were Intimate Friends—Suicide Jumped Into Cistern After Shooting Herself.

Salina, Kan., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Carl Ward is dead and Mrs. W. R. Cox is in a hospital, probably fatally injured as the result of a mysterious double shooting here. The husbands of both women are traveling salesmen.

Mrs. Ward was 28 years old and was married last April. She fired five bullets into her breast over the heart. Then she ran to the back yard and dived into a cistern full of water.

At St. Barnaba's hospital Mrs. W. R. Cox, 40 years old, lies wounded with two bullet wounds, one in her breast and the other in her back. The two women were intimate friends and the Wards had lived at the Cox home, but were moving when the shooting occurred.

The women ate dinner together at the Cox home and about 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Ward left the Cox home hurriedly, going to her own new home. She went to her bedroom and then the shots were heard. A painter heard her say:

"I have shot another woman."

While there is mystery surrounding the shooting of Mrs. Cox, it is believed that Mrs. Ward knew of it before her suicide.

What passed between the women before they separated is not known, as Mrs. Cox has made no statement. When asked for a statement, however, she said several times:

"Go ask Mrs. Ward. She knows."

At the Ward home there were five shots fired. There were more empty cartridges in the room where Mrs. Ward shot herself than there were shots fired, which also is evidence that the revolver was fired before the woman began shooting at herself.

Cox and Ward are out of the city at present. Mrs. Cox is the mother of two children, a boy 18 years old and a girl 16 years old.

HIS TESTIMONY FAVORS BECKER

Former Member of "Strong Arm" Squad Repudiates State Witnesses on Stand.

New York, Oct. 22.—James D. White, a policeman, formerly attached to Lieut. Becker's "strong arm" squad, testified in Becker's defense that Becker had never said to him in the Tombs that he (Becker) would be praised in the end for killing Rosenthal.

No conversation remotely resembling that occurred, according to the policeman.

White's story repudiated recent testimony of James D. Hallen, a state's witness, who produced notes of what purported to be such a conversation. White also swore, as did two witnesses who followed him, that Becker's raid on Rosenthal's gambling place was "honest and square" and not made for revenge, as the state charges, after Becker and the gambler had quarreled.

FIRE THREATENS OIL REFINERY

Warehouse Blaze Causes Rumor That Standard's Sugar Creek Plant Was Burning.

Kansas City, Oct. 22.—The Standard Warehouse company near Sugar Creek, was totally destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at between $18,000 and $20,000.

The flames spread to the branch yard of the Badger Lumber company and caused a loss estimated at $15,000.

James Rudge of Independence, manager of the plant, said he had no idea how the fire originated.

There were about 15 carloads of hay in the warehouse and a large amount of coal, all of which was a total loss. A two-story cottage just west of the plant occupied by one of its employes, was also burned.

The large amount of inflammable material spread out over a large surface made an immense blaze and created the impression that the entire Standard Oil refinery was on fire.

Negro Attacked Sedalia Girl.

Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 22.—A sheriff's posse is searching for a negro who attacked Lucille Crosslin, a 16-year-old school girl, here. The girl was dragged into a cornfield near her home on the outskirts of town, but the girl's mother, attracted by screams frightened the man away. One man, who answers the description of the negro, is in jail. The girl is positive she can identify her assailant.

Football Claims a Victim.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 22.—James Lynch, 20 years old, of Bridgeport, is dying here of injuries received in a football game. He is in a hospital with a fractured skull. Lynch was struck on the head by a player's knee in a scrimmage.

Fortunes in Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. Twenty-five cents at the Orear-Henry Drug Co. Advertisement.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

J. C. Ferritor, Druggist.

Colbert spoke of the "Value of Manual Training in Arts and Crafts;" Mrs. G. H. Eaton told of "The Industries at Deerfield;" Miss Esther Shoemaker gave an interesting history of "The Roycrofters and Their Work at East Aurora, N. Y.," and also conducted a fine round table discussion. Mr. D. R. Eversole was present by invitation to tell of his visits to the Roycrofters in East Aurora, and his story of the daily lives and their work was intensely interesting. The Roycrofters occupy a unique place in the world's work. RAVENWOOD.

The eastern part of the county has had plenty of rain for some time, but not too much.

A large wheat crop has been sown and is looking well. Farmers have come to the conclusion that it pays to raise wheat, and that the change of crops is good for their land.

The revival services at the M. E. church in Ravenwood which have been in progress for two weeks, closed Sunday night. There were large crowds at each night service. There were between forty and fifty conversions and about thirty-five additions to the church.

There is very little political excitement here, as no political gatherings have come off by either party yet, and the goods box politicians have been very quiet. The daily newspapers tell us that Democracy is united, working in harmony and looking forward to better days. They also tell us that the Republican party is split wide open and not likely to ever come together again. I think the best thing they could do would be to call another great national convention and entertain a motion to suspend the rules and elect Wilson and Marshall by acclamation.

RESIGNED HIS PLACE.

Rev. J. T. McDonald of St. Joseph, Who Has so Faithfully Represented the St. Louis Orphans' Home.

Rev. J. T. McDonald of St. Joseph, who was in Maryville Monday to take the 4-months-old baby girl from the county farm to the St. Louis Orphans' Home, has resigned that work, after twelve years of most faithful and efficient service, and his resignation will take place the first of January. The officers of the home are all broken up over his decision, and have done and said all they could to dissuade him from his purpose to retire from the work. They are at a loss where to look for some one to take his place, but Mr. McDonald has promised to assist them in securing some one and help him in getting started.

Mr. McDonald has found good homes for 600 children in the twelve years he has been working for the home, and with such a record as that, he or any man could well retire, knowing they had brought happiness to so many.

Mr. McDonald's decision to resign the work, which kept him almost constantly from his family, was brought about by the marriage of his daughter, Madonna, Wednesday of last week to Mr. R. W. Cannon of Kansas City. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald have a daughter left to them, but the marriage and departure of the eldest daughter made him realize how little time he had spent at home with her, so he has concluded to give the rest of his life to his family. He has purchased an interest in the S. A. Lyons Furniture company's business at Seventh and Charles streets, and will be a St. Joseph business man from now on.

WRITES ABOUT MIKE CALLAHAN.

Never Mixes in Politics, But Keeps Right on Making Money and Buying Land.

In Monday's issue of the St. Joseph Gazette appeared the following write-up of Mike Callahan, the big Arkoe farmer:

Politics are not bothering Mike Callahan of Arkoe, the richest and best fixed farmer in Nodaway county. Mike is a charter member of the "let well enough alone" club of Arkoe, in fact, he is its president. Politics have never bothered Miks Callahan since the day he lived in a dugout and put shoes on mules that were used in grading the old Hopkins branch of what is now the Burlington railway.

Maybe it is because Mike Callahan is a Yankee that he is a philosopher, and maybe that is one reason that Mike believes in letting well enough politics alone. He has had so much work on his hands running his farm and making money that political economy has never bothered him. When he got his farm to where "it sorter ran itself" then Mike got himself an automobile. That automobile was a sort of necessity to Mike Callahan. His farm was getting so big that he could hardly ride over it on horseback or around it in a buggy, so he went up to Maryville and ordered a car, the model of which was two years ahead of the times. Mike lost his chauffeur. She got married, and there was the biggest wedding out at Mike Callahan's big brick farm palace that ever was.

Philosopher that he is, Mike was mighty lonesome after his chauffeur, his daughter and only child, was married, but Mike has the player piano left, even if the girl that played it did get married and went to the city to live. Mike can operate the piano player, too, and the Sextet from Lucia, and other classics in which a philosophical mind likes to indulge musically, are his favorites.

Being a Yankee and rich and a farmer, Mike Callahan naturally turns to literature, good literature, too, just as he wants the best music that he can buy, and for the same reason that he bought himself the best phonograph and the best player piano that cash, wrung from the soil, could buy, and the rural mail carrier that drives out by Mike's farm six days in the week unloads more magazines at Mike's mail box than at all others on his mail route combined.

Prosperity has not spoiled Mike Callahan. He is just as plain and uncouth as he was when shoeing mules and living in a dugout. Fact is, Mike shod mules at night and drove a pair of them to a slip scraper on the "dump" in the daytime. Mike saw that there was a future for the prairie land north of Savannah as soon as the graders got to making the dirt fly up the 102 river valley.

It did not take much money to buy Nodaway county land in those days, and Mike Callahan was making money driving a mule team by day and shoeing mules by lantern or forge light at night. Mike had seen the Connecticut river valley with all its weath of fertility, and he had likewise seen the barren hillside farms of the New England states, because he had tried to scratch a living out of them and found it more profitable to come west and help build railroads and shoe mules.

Well, Mike bought land and put mortgages on it and paid the mortgages off, raised hogs and cattle to which he fed corn in order to sell the hogs and cattle to buy more land on which to raise more corn to feed more hogs and cattle to sell to buy more land with, ad infinitum.

Mike has a picture of a big bunch of cattle hanging on the wall of the parlor in his brick mansion. That picture was taken at the stock yards in South St. Joseph, and along with that bunch of the finest car load of cattle ever sent to the South St. Joseph market, is the picture of a girl, Mike's chauffeur, the girl who helped him feed those cattle and put them on the market and who was so pretty and dashing that a city bred man just naturally could not help falling in love with her and marrying her.

Mike Callahan maybe is worth a half million dollars. He does not know, neither does he care. He is getting along fine, thank you, and his farm becomes more productive every year and his cattle and horses and hogs improve in quality every year and the sequel is that Mike's bank deposits in the Maryville National bank get larger every year and he buys a new farm or two every year or so.

C. E. Dawson of Skidmore Charged With Selling Diseased Hogs, Up in Federal Court.

C. E. Dawson, a farmer near Skidmore, was fined $250 Monday by Judge A. S. VanValkenburgh of the federal court of St. Joseph. Byers Brothers Commission company and A. H. Baker of St. Joseph and Mr. Dawson were all charged with selling diseased hogs.

The alleged offense was committed last spring, and after hearing the evidence Judge Van Valkenburgh assessed a fine of $250 and costs against Dawson and dismissed the cases against the commission company and Baker, who acted as its agent. The court held that Dawson knew the hogs were diseased when he sold them to the commission company.

ROLLED IN BLANKET

DEMENTED MAN REFUSED TO DON HIS CLOTHING.

BROKE UP FURNITURE

Raised Disturbance at 3 o'Clock in the Morning and Was Taken to County Jail.

Charles Coombs of Burlington Junction, who has been subject to attacks of insanity within the past few weeks, was locked up in the county jail here early Tuesday morning after having one of his spells.

Coombs came to Maryville Monday night from St. Joseph with his father, George Coombs. Coombs after being arrested last Friday at St. Joseph for drunkenness became violently insane at the central police station in that city and was transferred to the padded cell for fear he would harm himself. His father went from Burlington Junction to that city Monday and he and officer Bert Mack brought the man to Maryville.

Coombs and his father spent the night at Jack Thornton's residence, corner of Sixth and Buchanan streets and about three o'clock this morning Coombs raised an awful disturbance, breaking furniture and other articles. He said that he wanted his fiddle and that he was going to have it. He also cussed. Word was sent at once for night officer Bert Mack and he with Robert Yeaman went to the house to get Coombs. The officers had a time with Coombs trying to get him to put his clothes on, but he refused and so the officers rolled him in several blankets and took him to the county jail. His clothes were taken to him Tuesday morning.

Coombs was still in jail Tuesday. He told the officers that he was ready to be taken to the asylum at any time.

The man was still in a terrible condition at the county jail today. He tore up all of the blankets he could get hold of and laughed and swore at everybody. It is feared that he will harm himself unless some disposition is made of him soon.

It is not known at this time what will be done with him, but it is probable that a special session of the court will be held and the man sent to the asylum at St. Joseph.

RECEIVED MONEY FROM STATE.

County Has $2,550.39 to Be Apportioned Among Towns—Maryville Will Get About $370.

This fund will be apportioned by the county to the incorporated towns of the county, according to the number of the school children. It cannot be apportioned until all of the clerks of these school districts in the towns send in their lists.

Maryville will receive something like $370 from this fund.

WENT HOME ALONE.

Crazy Man at Burlington Junction Mineral Springs Was Able to Go Home Monday Night.

Hugo Leu, the man from Treynor, Ia., who stirred up things at the Burlington Junction mineral springs sanitarium Saturday afternoon and night by his insane actions, and had to be held in jail in town all day Sunday and Monday, had so far recovered from his spell by Monday night that he was allowed to leave on the night train for his home alone.

He had not fully recovered his mental equilibrium, but he was so much better in appearance and speech that the authorities felt safe in letting him go.

The physicians are still at a loss to account for the "spell" the man had, but believe it was the grand finale of a prolonged "booze" that had made him sick and had caused him to seek the springs for relief from his suffering that had all the symptoms of a bad case of rheumatism.

WILSON DATE IS NOVEMBER 2.

State-Wide Meeting to Be Joint Demonstration for New Jersey Man and Major.

Chairman D. C. McClung of the Democratic state committee, yesterday sent out notices to the precinct committeemen throughout the state to change the date of Wilson day to November 2.

The change has been ordered by the Democratic national committee.

It had been originally planned to hold meetings in every voting precinct of the state where the county seats were inaccessible, and it is proposed to have a message from Governor Wilson and Attorney General Major, candidates for president and governor of Missouri respectively, read to the Democrats on the eve of the election.

Chairman McClung said yesterday that the meetings which originally had been called for October 31 would be postponed until November 2, in accordance with the wishes of the national committee.

"We are going to make it a joint meeting for Wilson and Major," said Chairman McClung, "and Attorney General Major will send his wishes to the voters of the state while they are in session. I am sure that the state-wide demonstration in Missouri will be as large as in any state in the Union."

HINTON DAVIS DEAD

PASSED AWAY TUESDAY MORNING AT DAUGHTER'S HOME.

WAS SICK FOUR YEARS

Funeral Services Wednesday Afternoon at the Shopbell Home—Burial at White Oak.

John Hinton Davis, for many years a resident of Nodaway county, died Tuesday morning at 2:30 o'clock, after a long illness of Bright's disease. His death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Shopbell, at Pickering, where he has been confined to his bed for eight weeks.

The funeral services will be conducted at the daughter's home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. F. M. Lindenmeyer. Burial will take place in White Oak cemetery by the side of a daughter of the deceased who died thirty years ago.

Mr. Davis was 71 years old. He was born near Nashville, Tenn., and came with his parents to Missouri and settled at Harrison. Later Mr. Davis came to Nodaway county and spent the greater part of his life here, making his home in Maryville for eighteen years, his last residence being on South Vine street.

Mr. Davis was married in December, 1868, to Mrs. Margaret Reece of this county, who survives him with their children, who are Mrs. Charles Shopbell of Pickering, Mrs. J. H. Rissell of St. Joseph, John Davis of Hopkins and Harry H. Davis of Kansas City. Also three step-children, Mrs. Edward Otis and Adolphus M. Reece of Maryville and Mrs. Mary Livasy of Pickering.

Mr. Davis served four years during the civil war and was a member of the G. A. R. post of this city.

DID NOT BRING HIM BACK.

Hearing of Requisition Was Before Kansas Attorney General, Who Will Give Decision Later.

Sheriff Tilson returned Tuesday noon from Topeka, Kan., where he and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Marshall E. Ford had been present at a hearing before the attorney general of Kansas in the case of O. H. Price of Jewell county, Kansas, who is wanted in this county. The attorney general heard the case, but said that he would not give a decision until next week.

It is said that politics is mixed up in the case, as petitions bearing names of many citizens of Jewell county were presented to Governor Stubbs and other state officials, requesting them not to honor the requisition.

It is thought that no decision will be given until after election.

Price is charged with misrepresenting facts and obtaining money under false pretenses, stated Attorney Ford. He came to this county to buy a farm near Elmo, and needing $1,000, went to the Elmo bank to borrow the money. He represented himself as a big property owner in Kansas, it is alleged. The bank advanced him the money as his story was told with much sincerity and was so plausible. But the bank found out that they were the losers and had an information issued against Price. Requisition papers were issued and sent to the governor of Kansas, but a protest was raised and the hearing was held Monday.

Frank Reavis, W. A. Miller and John Mutz spent Sunday in Parnell. Mrs. Reavis, who had been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Thummell, there a few days, returned home with Mr. Reavis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Finney of Colorado Springs, Col., left for their home Tuesday morning after a visit with Mr. Finney's sister, Mrs. A. W. Littler, and family.

Mrs. R. H. Perry went to Higginsville, Mo., Tuesday morning for a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. N. M. Sowder.

A DOZEN REASONS.

Why you should vote against Ex-President Roosevelt:

1. He has broken his solemn promise not to be a candidate for a third term, therefore his other promises are not to be relied upon.

2. For seven years he was president, and during those seven years the very conditions he now pretends to combat viciously were more thoroughly developed than during all the other periods in the country's history.

3. The day he became president there were 149 trusts or combinations, capitalized at $3,000,000,000, and the day he retired from office there were 1,020 such combinations, capitalized at $31,000,000,000.

4. He permitted the steel trust to acquire the Tennessee Coal and Iron company, its principal rival, in violation of the anti-trust law, and forbade the prosecution of the harvester trust at the request of George W. Perkins, his present national chairman.

5. The man, next to Roosevelt, responsible for the third term movement is George W. Perkins. Perkins is the promoter and defender of the most pernicious trusts in the United States, which are the most vicious imposers on the men, women and children wage earners of the country.

6. He urges the legalization of trust watered stock and monopoly, as first advocated by Perkins, his principal supporter and financial backer.

7. He accepted campaign contributions from trusts, insurance companies and "crooked business," and denied that he had done so—"My dear Harriman." He stands for "Boss" Flinn, "Boss" Woodruff and other "bosses" who serve him.

8. During the seven years he was president he failed, even refused, to lift a finger against high tariff. Who believes, if elected, he would use to reduce excessive tariff taxes? Who is he surrounded now by high tariff men, who are contributing freely to his campaign fund?

9. His boss was before that peace.

10. Quit of office he promises too much, and in office performs too little.

11. He says that the small farmers and the laborers of the city are not to be mentioned in the same breath with cowboys, etc. After describing the drunkenness and deadly shooting affrays of the the cowboys, he writes: "But they are much better fellows and pleasanter companions than the small farmers or agricultural laborers; nor are the mechanics of a great city to be mentioned in the same breath with them."

12. President Taft, who knows him best, says of him: "He is a demagogue, a neurotic, a flatterer, an egotist."

MILITIA TO STOP TRACK GAMBLING

Restraining Order Failed to Close Indiana Racing.

TWO COMPANIES ORDERED OUT

Private Detectives Employed by State Reported Conditions Worse Than Last Week—Governor's Message Was Result.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—Two companies of state militia will surround the track of the Mineral Springs Jockey club at Porter, Ind., before the hour for opening in the morning, in compliance with orders just issued by Mark Thistlethwaite, secretary to Gov. Marshall.

The call for troops followed a report from private detectives employed by the state, who said there was more gambling at the track during the day than at any time last week.

The state failed in its attempt to close the track by a restraining order and Gov. Marshall, who is campaigning in California, wired his secretary to use the militia if the county authorities failed to stop the meet. The corporation has failed to take out corporation papers in this state.

Expect No Trouble.

Brig. Gen. Charles A. Garrard departed for Porter, where he will immediately take charge of the troops.

Company F of South Bend and company M of Rennssalaer, which have been ordered out, can reach the track in less than an hour. State officials say they expect no trouble as a result of sending troops to the scene and add that it was the only course left to curb alleged violations.

A message just received from Gov. Marshall reads:

"If the attorney general says the law is being violated and the sheriff will not do his duty, have the militia sent to enforce the law."

Coffeyville, Kan., Oct. 22.—Emil Bauer, secretary and treasurer of the Tyro Vitrified Brick company, committed suicide by shooting himself in the office of the company at Tyro. Worry over the gas situation is said to have been responsible for the act. He came to Tyro from Edion, Ind.

FOREIGNERS TO BE RESPECTED

Both Sides in Mexican Revolution Make Promises.

PORFIRIO DIAZ NOT TO RETURN

Washington Authorities Watching Closely Situation in Mexico, But Are Assured Americans Will be Unharmed.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Official interest here centered upon the situation in Mexico, where the rebellion, which has been in progress for months, has taken on a new and formidable phase as the result of Gen Felix Diaz's leadership.

The return to Washington of Secretary Knox from his Japanese trip; the presence here of Henry Lane Wilson, ambassador to Mexico, and interesting and important developments in the military situation at Vera Cruz, held by Diaz the last few days, were elements that served to concentrate attention upon the Mexican trouble.

Promises Are Abundant.

The military situation at Vera Cruz, according to the last reports to the department, is extremely interesting.

General Beltran has said that he would do all he could in conformity with orders from his government to capture the town to protect it from destruction. Furthermore, he told the foreign consuls that he would transmit to his government their request to refrain from bombarding the town or fighting in its streets.

For his part Gen. Diaz, who is in complete possession of the city proper, offered to the consuls all possible guarantees to life and property so long as he maintained control.

Consuls Reassured.

With the leaders on both sides in this frame of mind, the consuls felt reassured.

According to the day's reports everything in Vera Cruz is unusually quiet and orderly and is likely to remain so unless the federal gunboats start to bombard the city.

Porfirio Diaz Won't Return.

Paris, Oct. 22.—Gen. Porfirio Diaz, ex-president of Mexico, declared that his intention of not returning to Mexico was unchanged. He shows great interest in the news concerning his nephew, Felix Diaz, and the taking of the port of Vera Cruz. He said, however, that he was totally without private advices from Mexico and "under the circumstances I prefer not to express any opinion relative to my nephew's chances."

WOULD BORROW LIBERTY BELL

Frisco Children Trying to Get Historical Relic for Exposition in 1915.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—A movement has been started by the school children here to get the Liberty bell for the exposition in 1915. More than 50,000 signatures were obtained to a petition, which will be sent to the mayor and council of Philadelphia asking for the bell.

At the special services for Liberty Bell day children executed a military drill, participating in a flag raising and listening to an address by Mayor Rolph. Each child carried a small American flag, and a large flag covering a model of the statehouse in Philadelphia, where the Liberty bell hung was placed on the platform.

"Let San Francisco have the Liberty bell in 1915" was the sign indicating the reason for the celebration.

WOMAN TO FACE HER ASSAILANTS

Victim of Attack, Partly Recovered Will Testify at Preliminary Wednesday.

Ironton, Mo., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Lillie Mullane of Richmond, Va., the 19 year-old bride, who was attacked by 14 men at Benton Switch, Iron county, has recovered sufficiently to announce she expected to testify when five prisoners are given a preliminary hearing Wednesday afternoon at Des Arc.

Deputy sheriffs who have warrants for four other young men, are searching quietly for them. Another young man is held in jail at Ironton, but the names of four of the alleged assailants have not been ascertained by Sheriff John Marshall.

Doctors of Mississippi Valley.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—The thirty-eighth annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Medical association opened today at the Hotel Sherman with Dr. Louis Frank of Louisville presiding. Until Thursday night the doctors will be busy listening to papers and attending clinics. The address in surgery will be delivered by Dr. Maurice H. Richardson of Boston, and the address in medicine by Dr. Charles G. Stockton of Buffalo.

Another Pennsylvania Wreck.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 22.—The Pennsylvania railroad's Buffalo flyer, due in this city at 4:30 a. m. crashed into a box car that was being switched at Newberry. The flyer's engineer, David Getkin of Harrisburg, Pa., was killed. None of the passengers was injured.

Visited at Blanchard.

Miss Rose Walter of Lenox, Ia., who has been visiting the family of C. E. Anderson at Blanchard, Ia., returned home Monday. Miss Anderson was accompanied by Miss Dorothy Anderson of Minneapolis, Minn., a niece of Mr. Anderson of Blanchard, who will now visit her grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Anderson of Lenox.

TWO SALINA WOMEN SHOT

One Dead, the Other in Hospital, Fatally Injured.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS TRAGEDY

Had Been Living in Same House and Were Intimate Friends—Suicide Jumped Into Cistern After Shooting Herself.

Salina, Kan., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Carl Ward is dead and Mrs. W. R. Cox is in a hospital, probably fatally injured as the result of a mysterious double shooting here. The husbands of both women are traveling salesmen.

Mrs. Ward was 28 years old and was married last April. She fired five bullets into her breast over the heart. Then she ran to the back yard and dived into a cistern full of water.

At St. Barnaba's hospital Mrs. W. R. Cox, 40 years old, lies wounded with two bullet wounds, one in her breast and the other in her back. The two women were intimate friends and the Wards had lived at the Cox home, but were moving when the shooting occurred.

The women ate dinner together at the Cox home and about 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Ward left the Cox home hurriedly, going to her own new home. She went to her bedroom and then the shots were heard. A painter heard her say:

"I have shot another woman."

While there is mystery surrounding the shooting of Mrs. Cox, it is believed that Mrs. Ward knew of it before her suicide.

What passed between the women before they separated is not known, as Mrs. Cox has made no statement. When asked for a statement, however, she said several times:

"Go ask Mrs. Ward. She knows."

At the Ward home there were five shots fired. There were more empty cartridges in the room where Mrs. Ward shot herself than there were shots fired, which also is evidence that the revolver was fired before the woman began shooting at herself.

Cox and Ward are out of the city at present. Mrs. Cox is the mother of two children, a boy 18 years old and a girl 16 years old.

HIS TESTIMONY FAVORS BECKER

Former Member of "Strong Arm" Squad Repudiates State Witnesses on Stand.

New York, Oct. 22.—James D. White, a policeman, formerly attached to Lieut. Becker's "strong arm" squad, testified in Becker's defense that Becker had never said to him in the Tombs that he (Becker) would be praised in the end for killing Rosenthal.

No conversation remotely resembling that occurred, according to the policeman.

White's story repudiated recent testimony of James D. Hallen, a state's witness, who produced notes of what purported to be such a conversation. White also swore, as did two witnesses who followed him, that Becker's raid on Rosenthal's gambling place was "honest and square" and not made for revenge, as the state charges, after Becker and the gambler had quarreled.

FIRE THREATENS OIL REFINERY

Warehouse Blaze Causes Rumor That Standard's Sugar Creek Plant Was Burning.

Kansas City, Oct. 22.—The Standard Warehouse company near Sugar Creek, was totally destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at between $18,000 and $20,000.

The flames spread to the branch yard of the Badger Lumber company and caused a loss estimated at $15,000.

James Rudge of Independence, manager of the plant, said he had no idea how the fire originated.

There were about 15 carloads of hay in the warehouse and a large amount of coal, all of which was a total loss. A two-story cottage just west of the plant occupied by one of its employes, was also burned.

The large amount of inflammable material spread out over a large surface made an immense blaze and created the impression that the entire Standard Oil refinery was on fire.

Negro Attacked Sedalia Girl.

Sedalia, Mo., Oct. 22.—A sheriff's posse is searching for a negro who attacked Lucille Crosslin, a 16-year-old school girl, here. The girl was dragged into a cornfield near her home on the outskirts of town, but the girl's mother, attracted by screams frightened the man away. One man, who answers the description of the negro, is in jail. The girl is positive she can identify her assailant.

Football Claims a Victim.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 22.—James Lynch, 20 years old, of Bridgeport, is dying here of injuries received in a football game. He is in a hospital with a fractured skull. Lynch was struck on the head by a player's knee in a scrimmage.

Fortunes in Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them. Twenty-five cents at the Orear-Henry Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee—if you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

J. C. Ferritor, Druggist.

RAVENWOOD.

The eastern part of the county has had plenty of rain for some time, but not too much.

A large wheat crop has been sown and is looking well. Farmers have come to the conclusion that it pays to raise wheat, and that the change of crops is good for their land.

The revival services at the M. E. church in Ravenwood which have been in progress for two weeks, closed Sunday night. There were large crowds at each night service. There were between forty and fifty conversions and about thirty-five additions to the church.

There is very little political excitement here, as no political gatherings have come off by either party yet, and the goods box politicians have been very quiet. The daily newspapers tell us that Democracy is united, working in harmony and looking forward to better days. They also tell us that the Republican party is split wide open and not likely to ever come together again. I think the best thing they could do would be to call another great national convention and entertain a motion to suspend the rules and elect Wilson and Marshall by acclamation.
